

What is Your Decorating Vision for 2010

What is Your Decorating Vision for 2010

The welcoming of a New Year evokes introspection: reflecting the past, contemplating the present with hopeful visions for the future. This exteroception may focus on the want to create firm newborn insights in the interior design of one's home, whether it may be introducing newborn colors, furnishings or decorating style – what is your 2010 decorating vision?

Beginning in January, Lifespace is providing a FREE internet monthly calendar decorating guide! Your calendar will feature monthly decorating articles in choosing a shack and inventorying your space, elemental colouration schemes, symbolic shack themes, interior recycling, lifespace greening, furnishings interplay, expanse planning and energy alignment. Feng shui techniques and designing with medicine rotate nature elements are offered for ways to create interior agreement and balance in your space.

Interactive Session – Monthly articles will wage participants possibleness to write in and share personal decorating experiences and progress, as well as ask Lifespace for decorating help.

Whether your exteroception is a lifespace that offers mere comfort, one that displays functionality, aesthetics or a surroundings that provides a retreat for the soul, Lifespace will guide you in this journey with tools to support reach your desired destination.

Decorating Tools & Resources – Lifespace suggests creating a personal decorating book with a collection of shack ideas, sketches, material samples and other resources to enlighten your decorating vision.

Lifespace Decorating Books & Quick Decorating Decoders: Japanese Feng Shui, individual Medicine Wheel Room Decorating, Native dweller Medicine Wheel Room Decorating, available finished www.lifespacedesigns.com, Barnes & Noble, Amazon.com.